

The following table provides an overview of the key impacts which the CIT Trust Board have secured during the academic year.

We have ensured that the development of the trust has a clear strategic trajectory for the next three years	We have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- 'signed off' a three year strategic plan which future proofs the organisation and ensure that the mission and vision of the trust is secured.</li><li>-</li></ul>

We have ensured that the trust has a robust approach to health and safety	We have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Established a robust mechanism to monitor potential health and safety risks and to gain assurances that any identified deficiencies are dealt with effectively.</li></ul>